Puppies and Kittens and Kids, Oh My!

Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation's summer camp opens for children of all ages

WALNUT CREEK, California – April 1, 2005 – If your child loves animals, Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation's (ARF) Camp ARF is the place to be this summer! You can walk with the animals, talk to the animals and learn how they talk to you. Camp ARF promotes the value of humane education while strengthening the bond between animals and children. With crafts, games, playtime and hands-on activities galore this one-week session is sure to fill up fast.

Applications are being accepted right now – call today to enroll. Camp ARF is safe and fun for all age groups and is limited to 15 campers per session. Your $100.00 fee for students grades 1-5, and $125 fee for students grades 6-12, will provide facts, fun, crafts and activities that will keep a child happy. For additional information, please call 925-296-3152 or visit www.arf.net for a complete list of camp sessions and to download a Camp ARF application.

ARF's People Connect programs strengthen the human animal bond for the elderly; residents of assisted living centers, teens at juvenile hall, high school students, grade school students and young children through programs that are national models of excellence. ARF programs allow people to experience the unconditional love and acceptance of dogs and cats.

ARF's Adoption and Education Center saves the lives of loving dogs and cats who have run out of time at public shelters. ARF gives another chance at life to dogs and cats who otherwise may be killed. ARF provides the care and attention they need, including spay or neuter surgery, until ARF finds them a new home of their own.

People rescuing animals...animals rescuing people.
