CAMP ARF GIVES KIDS SOMETHING TO HOWL ABOUT
Find fun and unique summer sessions at Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation

WALNUT CREEK, California – April 11, 2011 – Give your child something to howl about this summer with fun and unique humane education at Camp ARF! Tony La Russa's Animal Rescue Foundation (ARF) in Walnut Creek, California offers a variety of week-long sessions for campers in grades 1-12, starting June 20.

Designed for children who love animals and are interested in learning more about them, Camp ARF promotes the values of humane education while strengthening the bond between animals and children. Younger children gain exposure to all aspects of animal guardianship, such as care, behavior and safety, through fun games, creative crafts and educational activities. Older students can explore opportunities like animal careers, dog training, animal art, habitat construction, or ARF All Stars® volunteer training.

Camp ARF fills up fast, so enroll today to reserve your child's place in the fun! Register online today at www.arf.net or call 925-296-3152 for more information. Discounts are available when registering with sibling or friend, and full or partial scholarships are available for low-income families. If you are interested in helping send a child to Camp ARF, please visit www.arf.net/how-you-can-help/donate for information about ARF's Humane Education Fund.

ARF saves the lives of loving dogs and cats who have run out of time at public shelters, giving another chance at life to animals who otherwise would have been euthanized. ARF provides the care and attention they need, including spay or neuter surgery, until a new home of their own can be found.

ARF's People Connect programs strengthen the human animal bond for the elderly, residents of assisted living centers, high school students, grade school students, and young children through programs that are national models of excellence. ARF programs allow people to experience the unconditional love and acceptance of dogs and cats. People rescuing animals...animals rescuing people...®
